Love conquers all!

biography

Born in Ukraine and now thriving in the vibrant music scene of Antwerp, Dana Montana is a DJ whose unique selection of music and dynamic performances have captivated audiences across the globe. With an eclectic mix of house, disco house, hard house, and various genres from the 90s, they create an experience that goes beyond the beats.

Dana's sets are a celebration of color and extravagance, reflecting a bold visual identity that serves as a powerful expression of gender and individuality.

Driven by a passion to spread joy through music, their goal is to empower audiences, creating a space where everyone can feel free and uplifted. Whether spinning at intimate venues or commanding the decks at major events, Dana Montana brings an infectious energy that leaves a lasting impression.
