biography

Tai Lokun is one of the UK's newest rising DJs. The london-based DJ has lived around the globe and brings many of her far reaching influences into her eclectic sets. Though her signature style involves gracefully weaving between genres, she finds her sweet spot in classic house, percussive drums, breaks and groovy techno. When Tai is at a festival or a rave, her core goal is to always create fun, memorable moments for all those sharing the space with her.

Despite being a newcomer, Tai has played not only within Europe but as far as Bali and Singapore. The Rinse FM resident had a busy festival-filled season in 2023 where she played shows around Europe including the new The Levels stage, in Silver Hayes at Glastonbury, Gala festival and Dutch favourite, Draaimolen. She also made her mark playing at popular European clubs such at Lofi in Amsterdam and Ibiza's Pikes.
