biography

Noah Baine is an Italian producer and DJ blending raw club energy with emotional depth. His signature lies in heavy basslines, warped vocals, intricate textures and a unique blend of influences that pull from UK Garage, Electro, Drum & Bass, Afro, and Jersey Club - all made in his bedroom in Recanati, a tiny remote village in central Italy. Already receiving cosigns from scene leaders and recently signing with Black Butter & Disorder, Noah is set to release his debut EP, 'Balance' this summer ahead of making his debut on the club circuit across the UK & Europe
