

ryota

press contentsocialresident advisorinstagramsoundcloud

biography

ryota began his musical journey at the age of 20, deeply influenced by grime and drum and bass. This early exposure laid the foundation for his nuanced understanding and appreciation of genre-blending music. Over the years, he has honed his craft, developing an intuitive sense for creating immersive and unforgettable musical experiences.

In September 2019, Ryota burst onto the scene with the launch of his DJ collective FULLHOUSE. Since then, he has continued to captivate audiences with his charismatic sets—marked by a strong curatorial vision and technical skill. His ability to book and perform alongside internationally acclaimed artists has earned him growing recognition. One such pivotal moment was in October 2022, when he invited Yung Singh to perform at FULLHOUSE—a collaboration that sparked ongoing support from the celebrated DJ.

In 2023, Ryota performed at Boiler Room Osaka, further solidifying his reputation both in Japan and abroad. His work has caught the attention of global brands such as NIKE and Diesel, resulting in ongoing collaborations and creative partnerships. With performances at renowned venues and festivals, and collaborations with acclaimed artists worldwide, Ryota has firmly established himself on the international music scene. In addition to his DJ career, he is also actively engaged in music production.

In 2024, he completed a nine-show tour across five Asian countries, followed by an Australian tour in 2025. He is currently preparing for a second tour of Asia, as well as his debut tours in the US and Europe—continuing to expand his presence across borders.

Dedicated to pushing musical boundaries, Ryota has played alongside some of the industry's most respected names at prestigious events and platforms, including:

Boiler Room Osaka
Rinse FM (London)
Spotify Japan VIP Program
DIESEL × NTS Radio – DIESEL NTS Tracks
VERDY Sounds (ComplexCon Hong Kong)
NIKE (PV) – Track Production
BBC Radio 6 Music – Sweatbox Mix (London)

Now entering a new chapter of his career, Ryota is expanding his DJ activities beyond Japan while building a path as a music producer on the global stage.

FULLHOUSE is a collective based in Osaka that has been redefining Japan's club scene since 2019. Known for their eclectic music selection, they blend house, techno, hip-hop, and jungle — creating an inclusive and boundary-pushing atmosphere. Their events have featured both local Japanese talent and international artists, with appearances at Boiler Room, Fuji Rock Festival, and Rainbow Disco Club.

As a key member of FULLHOUSE, ryota has played a central role in shaping this new wave of underground culture in Japan.