JAMIIE is a magnetic force on the dancefloor, a power-femme artist who transforms every set into a spellbinding encounter. The German-Nigerian DJ/producer commands attention wherever she goes, from B2B sets with Black Coffee to stages at Tomorrowland, Ultra Music Festival, and Exit Festival. Her Afro-House core expands into limitless territory, delivering performances that command attention and inspire connection.

Based in Berlin and rooted in both German precision and Nigerian rhythm, JAMIIE's sound carries the beautiful tension of two worlds. Her breakout moment came with the Unfold Voices EP on Watergate Records, where the lead single has racked up nearly 2 million Spotify streams. "Indawo Yonke" (Sondela 2025) with South African singer-songwriter Tabia and Mozambican producer Owa Oda reflects JAMIIE's commitment to femme-led creative energy. Her landmark collaboration with Ape Drums, "111" on VOD, emerged as one of the most anticipated releases of the 2025 summer season, reaching #1 on the Beatport Afro House charts.

A former Watergate resident since 2016 and integral voice in the RISE and Sondela collectives, JAMIIE has graced the world's most coveted stages: Hï Ibiza, DC10, OFFSónar, Extrema Outdoor, and South Africa's Bazique Festival. Her remix work for labels like Anjunadeep, My Other Side of the Moon, and ULU demonstrates her versatility, while collaborations with artists like Tabia and Owa Oda reflect her commitment to femme-led creative energy.

Her story is one of bold reinvention, from corporate life and single motherhood to touring the world's biggest festivals. JAMIIE proves it's never too late to change your narrative, bringing authentic passion and magnetic presence to every performance.
