biography

Y U QT have solidified their reputation as key players in the UK's wave of house, garage and electronic music. Known for their high-energy music and live performances, Y U QT have carved out a unique lane with a sound that's equal parts nostalgic and forward-facing.

Following sold out tours of the UK, Australia/New Zealand and Asia. As well as appearances at Pitch Festival, Glastonbury, Waterworks, and Boiler Room Melbourne, where they delivered their most recent livestream B2B with Dr Dubplate, the duo continue to make waves internationally.

In 2025, they dropped a huge collaborative release with Bullet Tooth on The Warehouse Project's Label called Technique, and Dapper Dan, their collaboration with Diffrent which uniquely bended genres, subsequently earning widespread acclaim from both fans and DJs. Having recently signed to Technicolour/Ninja Tune the duo have many upcoming projects from themselves as well as collaborations with some of the best rising talent across dance music, the rest of 2026 is one to keep an eye on.

With continued support from BBC Radio 1, Triple J, Rinse FM, Hyperhouse on Apple Music, and a packed 2026 schedule of releases and global tour dates ahead, Y U QT are proving they're not just ones to watch, they're ones leading the charge.
